

Cleantech Phoenix

An International Business Symposium
May 16-18, 2012
in Phoenix, Arizona

Come learn about opportunities for your company in Phoenix and the United States at this unique symposium designed for executives of international companies in the Cleantech industries.

Registration will be limited to 25 foreign business executives and 50 Phoenix business executives so that each participant will have time for a short presentation about his or her company. Bus transportation will be provided for company and site visits.

This symposium is designed for foreign business executives

- engaged in sustainable industries
- providing green services
- looking to expand their operations in the United States.

Wednesday, May 16, overview presentations in a.m. and company visits in p.m.

Thursday, May 17, presentations by every participant and a reception

Friday, May 18, visits to Phoenix Cleantech companies

For the full program and to register, go to www.phoenix.gov/ibsymposium

City officials will assist foreign visitors arrange appointments with individual companies in Phoenix before or after the Symposium.

Registration fee:
$200 for 3-day program
$100 for Thursday only program